

WHAT IS HOSPICE: MYTHS AND REALITIES

Tuesday, May 10th

11:00 am - 12:00 pm

This will be an online event

Presented by: Sue Sorensen,

Community Relations Specialist, Hospice of the Red River Valley

Objectives:

- Understanding what hospice is.
- Studying some myths about hospice.
- Knowing when is the right time to make a hospice referral.

Sponsored by:

About the Speaker: As a community relations specialist at Hospice of the Red River Valley, Sue is constantly striving to educate, empower and improve the services offered by the organization. Sue works with professionals and community members to form trust and understanding about their choices when it comes to hospice care. Sue is a licensed social worker and worked as a nursing home social worker for almost 30 years prior to joining Hospice of the Red River Valley in 2016. She is married to Jay and they have two children: Mike (Lauren) and Carrie (Tom). She also became a grandma for the first time in 2021, twice!!!